

i15 Blood Gas and Chemistry analysis system

As a brand new POCT device specially designed for critical cares, i15 is portable, easy to use and performs a flexible panel tests from a single disposable cartridge. i15 brings new era of blood gas and chemistry analysis, and it enables you to more quickly and effectively monitor and manage your patients.

- Small size and light weight with build-in rechargeable battery
- 3 steps operation procedure to increase efficiency
- Complete maintenance free
- Standby at any time without consumption
- Auto sample aspiration and calibration to ensure accuracy and reliability
- Seamless integration with LIS/HIS through wired and wireless networking
- 10,000 patient data storage and USB data transfer
- Friendly user interface with colour LCD touch screen and “traffic light” indicator
- Build-in multimedia tutorials
- Flexible menu on single cartridge
- Long cartridge storage life at room temperature, ready to use at any time
- Innovative system design to ensure menu extensibility

LAN/Wi-Fi connectivity

Support SD card and USB storage

